

Noun Clauses or Adverb Clauses with "if"

Directions: Decide whether the clauses with “if” in the following sentences are noun clauses or adverb clauses.

Is the test today?

Can you tell me if the test is going to be today (1)? I asked myself if I needed to study (2). I'll study harder if the test is today (3). I don't recall if the teacher said the test was today or tomorrow (4). If the teacher calls you (5), send me an e-mail. I'll leave early if I don't hear from you (6). Does anyone know if she called (7)? I wonder if we can leave early (8). If we leave early (9), I'm not sure if we can take the test tomorrow (10).

1. _____

6. _____

2. _____

7. _____

3. _____

8. _____

4. _____

9. _____

5. _____

10. _____